

All American deserve the benefits of Net Neutrality. It's best for our economy, for our civic vitality, and is a requirement for fair and equal access to resources.